A PERFECT LIFE FOLLOWED BY Q&A
FEATURE 01:27:00

May 20th Egyptian 6:00pm

Brian imagines his perfect life out loud; the perfect wife, the perfect kids, the two car garage, a white picket fence and even a golden retriever. As he delivers his self-serving wish list, it begins to come true. His perfect wife enters and sits across from him. He is no longer homeless, he is an architect building the perfect fantasy. This is no fantasy however. He has already lived the perfect life and he blew it. Now, he is nothing more than a homeless man telling his story to anyone who will listen.

LAST SUMMER OF YOUTH

FEATURE 01:24:00

May 20th Egyptian 8:00pm

This independent film is an intimate multi-character drama about loneliness and forgiveness. Stuck in the monotony of daily life in suburban Illinois, six different people intersect in ways they can't even see throughout the course of a summer. An old theater manager. Two college roommates. A night-shift janitor. A beautiful young female journalist. In their attempts to find happiness, these people create prisons for themselves with their secrets and lies. By the end of the summer, none of them will ever be the same.

CLEAR BLUE

SHORT 00:20:00

May 20th Egyptian 9:30pm

Simon, an eager 16 year old, gets his first job as a lifeguard at the local indoor pool. At first his job is dull, until he notices Flova, a 71 year old woman who comes to swim every morning. As the days go on, Simon begins to find himself strangely entranced by her remarkable ability to remain under water for an unusually long time. One day Simon follows Flova into the change room, and discovers a startling secret...From this point on, Simon finds it impossible to stay away. As his sexual desires rage, Flova's need for his companionship also begins to grow. While the unlikely pair struggle to keep their relationship a secret, they both become aware of the potential danger, until one day, they realize there is no turning back.

TIN CAN SAILORS WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN

DOC 00:53:00

May 21st Library 4:00pm

The Pacific War in their own words. 'Tin Can Sailors Will Not Be Forgotten' offers a brief history of WWII in the Pacific intertwined with a verite slice of contemporary Americana. Focused on the Annual Reunion of the USS Morris Veteran's Association, the film offers a glimpse at the lives of destroyer men who faced death in their youths and are now faced with their own mortality. A labor of love, this remarkable film has been put together with no budget after the filmmaker heard the story of his father's experiences aboard the tiny destroyer, USS Morris. The film is a gritty look at war told through the first-person experiences of the sailors.

EVOLUTION: THE GRAND EXPERIMENT EPISODE 1 - THE QUEST FOR AN ANSWER

DOC 01:00:00

May 21st Prospector Noon

Darwin's book on evolution admitted that 'intermediate links' were 'perhaps the most obvious and serious objection to the theory' of evolution. Darwin recognized that the fossils collected by scientists prior to 1859 did not correspond with his theory of evolution, but he predicted that his theory would be confirmed as more and more fossils were found. One hundred and fifty years later, 'Evolution: The Grand Experiment' critically examines the viability of Darwin's theory. Filmed over 12 years on three continents and seven countries including many active dig sites, museums and universities.

May 23rd Egyptian 1:00pm

A voyage down the longest lake in the world aboard Africa's last surviving steamship reveals how people living along the remote shores of Lake Tanganyika continue to rely on this battered old relic of the German colonial era for their livelihood as they have for almost one hundred years. Narrated by Chiwoniso Maraire, a rising star in African music, and featuring an entirely original, locally recorded soundtrack, this documentary brings Liemba's colorful history to life and celebrates her role in this region of Africa. Compelling passenger narratives, breathtaking footage and upbeat music combine to take the audience on an unforgettable trip down Lake Tanganyika.

WAR 4 MORE!

SHORT 00:33:15

May 23rd Prospector 2:00PM

When a not-so-talented rocker meets a girl at the bar after his gig and agrees to help her shoot a guerrilla student documentary--he ends up in a fight for his life behind the walls of a secretive gated community where families engage in the most primitive form of social networking--organized war. A celebration of low-tech, low budget, non-collaborative film-making, 'The War 4 More' is a cobbling of action, comedy, original music, sex, and violence. Try to imagine the first thirty minutes of a big budget script realized (without actors) by a filmmaker working solo in a cramped studio with stop-animated action figures (filmed through a magnifying lens hot-glued to a web-cam.)

IT'S NATURAL TO BE AFRAID

SHORT 00:09:30

May 27th Library 5:15pm

Mya is coming into this country. Sam is coming out of mourning. Ryan is coming into adulthood. Are any of them where they want to be? Challenged to regain his life following a period of deep mourning, Sam steps back into the world at exactly the same time Mya arrives in town from Israel. Their lives seem destined to just miss each other until a young man, unsure of his own place in the world, intervenes dramatically.

BLACK FEBRUARY
MUSDOC 01:04:24

May 28th Egyptian 09:45am

Black February chronicles an unprecedented series of concerts performed in New York City by legendary jazz composer and conductor Lawrence D. 'Butch' Morris. Butch played 44 concerts in February 2005 to celebrate 20 years of Conduction, his revolutionary technique for leading live improvisations. But this documentary is more than a simple portrait of those 28 days or a biography of an enigmatic and complex legend of the avant-garde. It's a film about how music is made and what it means. It's about the struggle of artists trying to distill the purest essence of themselves into their work, and the scope of a musical theory that has the potential of redefining what it means to make music.

Give and Take offers an in-depth look at the diverse backgrounds and experiences of New York subway musicians. The film focuses on a professor named Renard who auditions for Music Under New York, and a homeless man named Douglas who puts an ad on Craigslist for a free guitar. Through interviews and musical performances the story highlights the different perspectives the two men have on art and community. Renard and Douglas' story reminds us of the common need for humans to communicate and connect with each other on a one on one level, whether through music or the relationships we have with each other.

BEATBOXING - THE FIFTH ELEMENT OF HIP HOP

DOC 00:55:00

May 28th Egyptian 2:00pm

It was in the late 70s that a youth culture evolved in the poorer parts of New York which combined several disciplines under the name of Hip Hop. Apart from the four classic elements of Graffiti writing, DJing, Breakdancing, and Rapping, the musical side of this culture was enhanced by a fifth element called 'Beatboxing'. From the hardship of poverty and the lack of instruments, a pioneer was inspired to imitate drum rhythms with his mouth - his brilliance creating the term 'Human Beatbox'. The documentary integrally covers a variety of musical technical abilities. Beatboxing has become a multilingual and diverse instrument applied in all genres of music. The documentary shows how this modern style of music has spread and how it continues to enrich the entertainment world.

EDGE OF JOY

DOC 00:42:09

May 28th Prospector 1:30pm

The Edge of Joy is a documentary film that follows an ensemble cast of Nigerian doctors, midwives and families to the frontlines of maternal care. Inside a maternity ward, the film chronicles distressed labors, deaths, and miraculous survival. Outside, lack of blood supply transportation and family planning are examined as causes of the cycle that kills more than 36,000 Nigerian women each year. The central characters in The Edge of Joy are the people deep within the Nigerian culture who know its misconceptions, its limitations, but also its capabilities. Narrated by award winning journalist, Eliza Griswold, and featuring animation by Yoni Goodman, this portrait of pregnancy and childbirth shows the consequences of poor maternal health as it explores the nuances and complexities of bringing emerging health technologies to the developing world.

INVISIBLE

SHORT 00:26:36

May 29th Prospector 3:30pm

A brutal killing drags an ordinary woman into a madman's delusional world. Cancer researcher Rebecca Wells finds herself captive of a homeless sociopath demanding her complicity in destroying the objects of his conspiracy paranoia. Dragged on a pell-mell race through the city's gritty alleys and condemned districts, she must gain his trust to escape and survive. But what she discovers along the way may change how she sees the world forever... and put her in even greater danger! What does the fall of the Soviet Union have to do with the space program? Who does GPS really help? What are those shadows we sometimes see at the edges of our vision? Who controls what we believe and know about the world?

MENSCHENLIEBE (PHILANTHROPY) WITH Q & A

FEATURE 01:19:46

May 29th Prospector 3:30pm

Arnold Richter studies physics, loves opera and writes novels. Not exactly the hobbies most women find attractive! Time for a change: Somehow, it has to be possible to learn how to seduce any woman within a few days. Just like 'Don Giovanni' does in Mozart's opera! Luckily, he finds an experienced teacher soon, and with each successful seduction, more and more 'Don Giovanni'-elements sneak into his world... A satire on today's 'Internet-Generation' and on a young man's flirting-problems, mixed with lots of classical music. It allows to get an authentic, yet satirical view on young people's lives today.

CIRCLE CLOSES

MUSDOC 00:16:13

May 30th Egyptian 2:15pm

Take a spiritual journey into the birth of new music as you witness a live event where performance meets meditation. This short film/music video documents the world premiere performance of composer Stella Sung's orchestral work 'The Circle Closes,' featuring four tuned meditation bowls on stage. To our knowledge, this is the first time such bowls have been used as solo instruments accompanied by a full orchestra. The film uses 13 camera positions to capture the spirituality and intensity of the work, performed in front of a live audience by the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra. It garnered the 'best editing of a short film' Crystal Reel Award from the Florida Motion Picture and Television Association in November, 2010.

LOVE, OLDER

SHORT 00:27:00

May 30th Egyptian 3:00pm

Bahiya and Mahmoud, a Middle Eastern couple in their later years, bickering and enduring the monotony of their routine life together. One morning, Mahmoud awakes to an empty bed and leaves the safety of his home, searching frantically for his wife. Only when they passionately reunite do they realize how much they need each other. Woven in between the first couples' story is the relationship of two older Americans, Martha and Jack, who discover romance despite their unusual limitations. A third couple, Hiroshi and Kiyoko, come to the realization that they can no longer fight the deterioration of old age alone. Love Older takes the seriousness of age and transforms it into an intimate love story, leaving a lasting impression on people of all ages.

TO THE DEATH

PERF/EXP 00:04:13

May 30th Egyptian 5:00pm

To the Death, a short film set to one of Danielle French's songs of the same name, reveals the psyche of Scarlett as she attends a performance at The Club, a surreal cabaret. Giving herself a Tarot reading, Scarlett manifests The Club out of thin air and instigates the patrons into action. Drawing on the principles in Jungian psychology where all the characters in our dreams are aspects of our own psyche, the odd and unusual patrons in The Club, as well as the performers backstage and on stage represent different aspects of Scarlett's psyche personified.
